LET'S START WITH THE INTRODUCTION
#FIND ANY LESSON FROM THE STORY

Long ago, in a land far away, there lived a dangerous Dragon. This dragon was feared by all who knew of its existence. With sharp claws and fiery breath, it terrorized the countryside, burning villages and devouring livestock.

The people of the land prayed for someone brave enough to confront the dragon and rid them of its menace. News of the dragon spread far and wide, reaching the ears of a young knight named Sir William.

Determined to prove his bravery and protect his fellow citizens, Sir William set out on a treacherous journey to find the dangerous dragon. Armed with his trusty sword and shield, he ventured into the dark forest where the dragon was said to reside.

After days of searching, Sir William finally came face-to-face with the dragon. The creature towered over him, its scales gleaming in the sunlight. Without hesitation, Sir William raised his sword and charged towards the dragon, ready to defend the innocent.

A fierce battle ensued, with the dragon unleashing its fiery breath and slashing its claws at the knight. But Sir William fought bravely, dodging the dragon's attacks and landing blow after blow with his sword.

Sir William was a fearless Hero

“After a long and grueling fight, the dragon lay defeated at Sir William’s feet.

The people rejoiced, grateful for the brave knight who had saved them from the dangerous dragon.

From that day on, Sir William was hailed as a hero throughout the land. His courage and valor were celebrated for generations to come, and the dangerous dragon became nothing more than a distant memory, a tale to be told to children at bedtime. And so, peace was restored to the land once more.
